

Ravaglioli expands its offer with a range of workshop furniture

Sasso Marconi. January 2023 - Ravaglioli S.p.A., member of Vehicle Service Group (VSG) and leader in the motor vehicle equipment sector, launches a range of furniture dedicated to workshops.

Tune Series - The Sound of Quality. Ravaglioli's new proposal may seem like an unexpected change of tune for the historic brand, known worldwide as a manufacturer of automotive equipment, but it is more a return to its origins. Ravaglioli, in fact, had already introduced a selection of workshop furniture in its catalogue in the 1970s, to abandon it in the following decade due to the brand's desire to concentrate its forces on lifting and tyre service.

Now that Ravaglioli has consolidated its notoriety in those very markets, it has decided to pick up where it left off, proposing solutions designed to optimally reorganise the work areas inside workshops and ensure safe and dynamic operations.

The Tune Series is presented with ten compositions of linear and elegant design with a wide application and efficiency in the most diverse work spaces. They start with compositions with a minimum height of 1.2 metres that extend modularly with drawer units, trolleys, and cabinets, up to a maximum of 2.72 metres with upward extension with the addition of wall panels.

Angela Cinelli, Product Manager Spare Parts & Accessories: "With the introduction of the Tune Series, we wish to offer our customers a one-stop shopping solution, where the furniture harmoniously complements our product range that has always represented us. The product encapsulates in its simplicity a great functionality that is the result of decades of experience all Made in Italy."

More information on the Tune Series can be found on the product page – tune-series.ravaglioli.it.
